Art Center Takes Visitors from Art to Table

Summit, NJ (December 20, 2017)—On Wednesday, December 6th, the Visual Arts Center of New Jersey introduced Art to Table, its new event for those who love inspiring art and elegant food. This event offers visitors an insider's look at the Art Center's current exhibitions, followed by a prix fixe lunch at Summit House Restaurant + Bar in downtown Summit. The inaugural installment was a roaring success, with more than 20 people participating in the curator-led tour and lunch. The next Art to Table event will take place on January 10, 2018, and offers visitors a last-chance opportunity to view our current exhibitions, Julia Jacquette: Unrequited and Acts of Play, Drawing it Out, and Stair-gazing: Élan Cadiz. More Art to Table events will take place in 2018, highlighting the spring exhibitions Radiant Energy, Richard Garrison: All-consuming, and Stair-gazing: Paul Corio. Visit artcenternj.org for more information.
