Color Wheels & Cupcakes: Art Center to hold Open House on April 14

Summit, NJ (April 3, 2018)—The Visual Arts Center of New Jersey will host Color Wheels & Cupcakes, an open house event on Saturday, April 14, from 11 AM–2 PM at 68 Elm Street in Summit. The event will feature activities for art enthusiasts of all ages, including Patricia Morris’s bobbin-lacemaking demonstration for adults, a painting project for children grades K–5, and a jewelry project for teens. Complimentary cupcakes will be provided by Gigi’s Cupcakes, of Summit and Maplewood.

“I’m so excited to invite our community to visit our spring open house,” said Cassandra Demski, Director of Studio School. “Visitors will be able to meet our talented faculty, see them create art, and sign up for spring and summer classes and camps. We’ll have something for everyone.”

Visit artcenternj.org for more information, or to register for classes at the Art Center.
